Corpus Christi

and

Minister: Our response is: Lord, hear our prayer.

For Pope Francis, along with our Bishop James and all the priests who serve in the diocese, that they will lead us in the Eucharist with faith, prayer and devotion.

We pray: Lord, hear our prayer.

For those who are deprived of the Eucharist: where there is persecution and war; or people are in prisons and isolated from the community because of frailty and sickness; that they will remain close to Jesus through prayer and his Word.

We pray: Lord, hear our prayer.

That through the power of the Eucharist, peace will spread across the land where Jesus first sat at table with his apostles; the violence between Russia and Ukraine will end; and comfort and aid will come to those across Africa suffering from floods and famine and to those harmed by the landslide in Papua New Guinea.

We pray: Lord, hear our prayer.

For the upcoming National Eucharistic Revival Conference in Indianapolis: that our nation may be transformed by a newfound devotion to the Lord's Body and Blood.

We pray: Lord, hear our prayer.

For the sick and injured, especially Cathedral volunteers Jay Elpert and Bob Kanatzer, may they and their caregivers experience Jesus' healing, comforting and supporting touch.

We pray: Lord, hear our prayer.

9 a.m. and 8 p.m.: For those who were nourished on the Eucharist and have died, especially Arthur Diaz and Yevdokiya Mykolavyivna Kurylvak (YOO-dik-ee-uh my-KUHL-leev-nuh KEER-lihk), that they will receive the promise of eternal life.

We pray: Lord, hear our prayer.
